

Grizzly Bear - This magnificent symbol of America's beloved wilderness heritage has been kept from the brink of extinction with the help of the Endangered Species Act. Today, there are fewer than 1,000 grizzlies in the lower 48 states. Their future remains uncertain as extractive industries continue to destroy the wild places they depend on for survival. Help us protect grizzly habitat and that of other threatened or endangered species nationwide.

The current treatment of downed animals is inhumane not to mention the risk
